ROBERT LENZ
EGG TEMPERA
DISCUSSION & DEMONSTRATION

Saturday, June 28th at 3pm

After a prolific year of exploring the medium, artist Robert Lenz will be hosting a talk at the gallery to share his knowledge of egg tempera painting.

Though new to Lenz, egg tempera is a centuries-old technique that uses egg yolk, pigments, and layering to create luminous, lasting works. Join us next weekend for a special event designed for artists and art enthusiasts alike.
