Enter a Show!

The Guild of Boston Artists, a 501(C)(3) nonprofit art gallery, is inviting your artists who work in the realist tradition to submit their best paintings, drawings, or sculptures for the chance to be exhibited in our Annual New England Regional Juried Exhibition (Aug 30 - Sept 27).

For the past 19 years, the exhibition has provided a significant opportunity for talented New England artists working in the realist tradition to exhibit their work and compete for prestigious awards. Bringing together the work of promising students, emerging and early career artists, as well as pieces from established professionals, the show is an annual celebration of the wealth of skill and breadth of vision in representational art across the region.

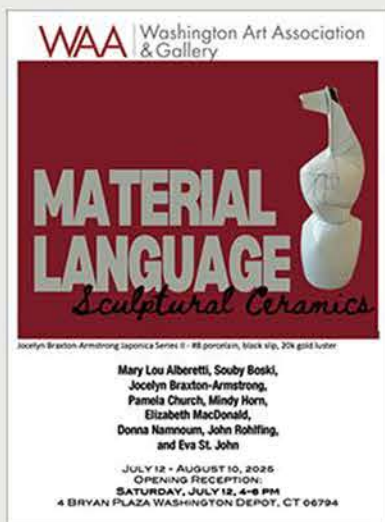

Only 2 Weeks Left to Submit Entries — accepted through July 19, 2025.
